
Martel: Working with professionals for quality outcomes

Martel will provide rapid and professional response to requests from architects, interior designers and furniture retailers. We will provide quotes for custom-made items, larger scale fitouts and specialist upholstering of client-owned items. Feedback on progress will be provided at every stage of production and Martel will complete work within established time frames. Martel provides on-site consultation and will contribute to team meetings as requested.

{gallery}commercialportfolio{/gallery}